CIGARETTES AND CHEWING GUM.

By Frank Parker Stockbridge.

One of the most popular songs among the doughboys of the A. E. F. contains these stirring lines:
"Ashes to ashes and dust to dust,
If the Camels don't get you
The Fatimas must."

That is the way the boys over there poke good-humored ridicule at the anti-cigarette moralists. Perhaps there are American soldiers overseas who don't smoke cigarettes—either the ready-made or roll-your-own kind. If there are any such, however, they have not yet been mentioned in the dispatches. The cigarette is as much a necessity in the maintenance of that intangible but very real element we call morale as any other part of the soldier's necessary incidental equipment, and when one considers what our cigarette-smoking army is doing and the workmanlike way in which it is doing it, it does seem as if the anti-cigarette crusaders had very few legs left to stand on. It was a full generation ago that they began to assert, with much high-sounding emphasis, that the cigarette was undermining the manhood and sapping the vitality of American youth. Most of our boys over there have been born since the cigarette first became popular in America; most of them have been cigarette smokers from an age even younger than the most ardent devotee of "Milday Nicotine" regard as the proper age to begin smoking.

One of the most important services the organization representing the United War Work Campaign are rendering in their great task of maintaining the link between the homes over here and the boys over there is the supplying of cigarettes. The figures are astounding. One organization alone shipped 848,785,802 cigarettes in the first year that our boys were on the other side to say nothing of 32,000,000,000 and 2,500,000 packages of smoking tobacco.

It is especially interesting also to note in the same list of shipment 14,510,000 packages of chewing gum. More gum than that is going over now since General Pershing has given his official indorsement to the use of chewing gum as a means of conserving the drinking water supply while on the march and in the trenches. Chewing gum has been the real target for much abuse from the moralists, although the gum chewers who are the targets for much of this criticism are not of the sex of which the A. E. F. is composed. We do not recall any serious attacks upon the use of chewing gum by the male contingent. It is surprising that the German press has not added this use of chewing gum by American soldiers as a proof of the inefficiency of our fighting men.

Not all of the $170,500,000 which the organizations combined in United War Campaign require to keep up their work for the next year is to be spent for cigarettes and chewing gum by any means, but the importance of these two items should not be overlooked. Anyone who does not approve of either may have the satisfaction of knowing that at least as much as his own particular contribution will be used for some other purposes such as books, baseball bats, doughnuts or dominoes. Indeed, the range of the activities and the catholicity of the appeal of the United War work Campaign are such that it is difficult to see how any good American can find and excuse for not giving.

PRES. WILSON ADDRESSED

NATIONAL RACE CONGRESS HOLDS GREAT MEETING—HON. W. H. HARRISON DELIVERED ADDRESS—TWELVE MILLION NEGROES REPRESENTED

At a recent meeting of one of the National Race Congresses held in the District of Columbia, a delegation called upon President Woodrow Wilson. The spokesman for the delegation was Hon. Harrison, an attorney for the National Baptist Convention (unincorporated), formerly of Oklahoma, but now living in Chicago.

Judge Harrison, as he is well and favorably known, has traveled for the past year in the interest of war savings and liberty loan drives, and was selected as the spokesman for the occasion when the leading men of brain and thought were in attendance. Judge Harrison in addressing the President said:

"Mr. President, twelve million faithful, courageous, patriotic, loyal and liberty-loving American citizens are your debtors for this conference. These twelve million American citizens realize and recognize the fact that these are the most crucial times as well as the busiest times of your life. They recognize the fact that since this nation entered the great world war, the human tragedy of all times, the nations of the world are wont to look at and regard you as the big brother of all the earth.

"The nations of the world recognize your foresightedness, sound judgment, humanitarian heart and comprehensive statesmanship, and are giving you the last word in all international matters, and for that reason, the visit of these representatives must of necessity be brief.

"We represent the only race on earth whose color is prima facie evidence of its patriotism and its loyalty, and we represent the only race on earth that has no German propaganda among them, no traitors, no alien enemies and no spies. We came to reassure you as a matter of reputation that we are with you and with your every utterance directed to winning the great world war and bringing democracy to the oppressed of this earth. We are with you at home on this continent, and we are with you over there, for over there our boys have passed through their Gethsemane, their baptism of fire, their Golgotha's height, and some of them have been crucified on the cross of atrocity that democracy might have life and have it more abundantly.

"We come, Mr. President, to ask on behalf of these twelve millions that they be given a man's chance in all of the constitutional rights guaranteed and vouchsafed to them by the Federal Constitution and the constitutions of their states. We have observed, and now call your attention to the fact that discrimination on account of race and color, and segregation and Jim Crowism are practiced in some of the departments of state assisting you in winning this great world war. We can not think that you are advised as to such discriminatory treatment, and that the mere calling your attention to the fact is sufficient to have the same removed.

"We believe in the right of trial by jury, we are certain that Jim Crowism and mob violence are un-American, undemocratic, and are wrong, and on behalf of these twelve million American citizens we pray the exercise of your good offices to the end that Jim Crowism, mob violence and any other wrong that tends to hinder us as a racial unit, not only be discouraged, but stopped.

"Thanking you for this conference on behalf of these twelve million, we are very grateful."

PRIVATE GEORGE DAVIS IN FRANCE.

Among the hundreds of Nashville young men who have gone over the seas with the thousands of Negroes now in France is Private George S. Davis. The letter is brief, but is given for the benefit of his many friends, and follows:

"Co. A, 807 P. Inf., A. E. F. Somewhere in France,
September 16, 1918.
Rev. Henry A. Boyd:
I am sending you these few lines to let you know I am feeling fine. I arrived safe over here. Kindly remember me to all. Pray for me.
Yours in Christ,
GEORGE S. DAVIS."

To the Sunday school forces Mr. George Davis will be remembered as one of the active workers in the front line Sunday School movement. He attended the Sunday School Congress when it met at Vicksburg, Miss., and was a representative at the meeting. He is a member of the New Hope Baptist Church and Sunday School, of which Rev. J. C. Harding is the pastor. In addition to this Private Davis was employed for more than fifteen years as a pressman at the National Baptist Publishing Board's plant, corner Locust and Second Avenue, North. He was stationed at Camp Meade and from there he was transferred to another camp on the east and then shipped for overseas duty from an American port. The fervent "pray for me" is regarded by the Sunday School forces as the beautiful sentiment expressed in the short missive.

Mr. Jno. Andrews arrived in the city from Indianapolis, Ind., Wednesday, Oct. 16th, and left for Camps at Greenville, S. C., Oct. 18th. Mr. Andrews is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Turner, 3316 Georgia Ave.

DR. SNOWDEN'S WORK IN SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

Springfield, Ill.—The citizens of Springfield are much enthused over the splendid work just completed by Dr. W. Henry Snowden, in renovating and remodeling the New Hope Baptist Church, to which he was called as pastor fourteen months ago. At or several months of preparation, the remodeled building was opened to the public with impressive ceremonies, Sunday, October 13th, at which time Dr. W. Dewitt of Jacksonville, Illinois preached in the morning and at the evening services. In the afternoon the various colored pastors of the city were present and a timely and appropriate sermon was preached by Dr. M. L. Porter, pastor of the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church of this city.

The church edifice of New Hope was built about seventeen years ago, and at the coming of Dr. Snowden was in a very bad state of repair. With a small membership and in the face of great odds, Dr. Snowden planned an up-to-date church building, which under the direction of God and with the co-operation of his people, he has been able to make a reality.

Improvements.

The building is located on the corner of Eighth and Miller streets, where concrete walks and cement foundations have been placed around the entire building. A new vestibule has been erected and a gallery placed at each end of the auditorium with the pulpit placed on the east side of the building. On either side of the pulpit has been erected a room for baptismal purposes. A pool has been placed under the pulpit platform and everything made complete. A complete change in the lighting system has been made, with up-to-date electrical fixtures installed. A new elevated floor has been put in with new seats so arranged that the congregation faces the pulpit from the north, south and west. The interior woodwork is in oak finish with the walls beautifully papered throughout. New windows of pleasant class have been installed.

HON. W. H. HARRISON, Chicago, Ill.

Splendid Co-operation.

Dr. Snowden is to be congratulated upon not only having won the respect and confidence of the entire membership of his church and community, but has received in his splendid undertaking, the active co-operation of his church officers, committee members and members. Among those who have shared in a creditable way the burden of the work, are: J. B. Osby, Stokes Hubbard, John Brown, Henry Smith, Thos. Jackson, Mildred Johnson, Frank Coleman, Robert Green, Henry Sallie, Robert White, Rev. H. K. Wilson, Frank Chandler, Robert Washington, Mesdames Nancy Coleman, Jennie Robinson, Lucy Richmond, Minnie Osby, Bertha Smith, Margaret Neal, Lizzie Brooks, Manya Hodge, Mary Washington, Amanda Robert, J. W. Smith, Flossy Chandler, Georgia White, Lula Green and Ann Sallie; Mesdames Mayme Osby, Ruth Robinson, Eulalia Osby, Dorothy Robinson, Jennie Osby, Margaret Green, and Mr. Delmer White.

REV. E. L. CLEGGETT ILL.

Rev. E. L. Clegg, the able superintendent of the Mt. Nebo Baptist Sunday School, is very sick at his residence on Twenty-eighth avenue, N. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Harry McGavock, of Springfield, who was called to this city several days ago on account of the serious illness of his son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson, and Miss Mattie Mai McGavock, of 2515 Alameda street, left for his home Sunday evening. He leaves them much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson of 2515 Alameda street, who have been ill for several weeks, are convalescing.

MAKING GOOD IN FRANCE.

Private Horace Mays would like his many friends to know that he is still making a good record in France, and would like to get a word of cheer from any good friend, he is stationed with organization Co. C, 541 Engineers, American Expeditionary Forces.

THE RELIEF CLUB.

The Relief club has postponed its meetings until the "Flu" epidemic has abated. A said date will be announced later through this paper.

The colored man now holding the highest rank in the Regular Army is Lieutenant-Colonel Benjamin Oliver Davis, a native of Washington, D. C., stationed with the 9th Cavalry in the Philippines.

COL. CREARY LAUDS NEGRO SOLDIERS

SENDS LETTER TO WAR CORRESPONDENT OF NATIONAL NEGRO PRESS ASSOCIATION—MR. WM. STEVENS WRITES OF HELPFUL WORK OF Y. M. C. A.

WASHINGTON EVENING STAR ON "THE COLORED TROOPS."

"This announcement is made: 'Complying with the request of the recent conference of colored editors, the committee on public information has designated a colored man, Ralph W. Tyler of Columbus, Ohio, former auditor for the Navy Department, as a regularly commissioned war correspondent, to specialize on the conditions surrounding the colored troops in France and to make daily reports of the activities and engagements in which the colored soldiers are prominent. He will be on the staff of Gen. Pershing, commander-in-chief of the American Expeditionary Forces overseas. Every facility has been provided for the prompt and accurate gathering of all facts that may be of interest to the colored people.

"A step in every way commendable. The bearing of the colored troops abroad has not been overlooked, or minimized, in the news. On the contrary, it has been praised. Order in camp, diligence in the discharge of routine and bravery in battle have all been mentioned.

"Never the less, reports of future on this subject will be of greater interest to the colored people of America because of the knowledge that they bear the additional impress of one of their number—a man qualified for the work, and certified by the authorities abroad by the authorities at home.

"And of greater interest also to the white people, who have not failed to note and appreciate the responses of the colored people to the calls of the war. No color line has run in that matter. According to their numbers and ability, the colored people have done well. They have offered themselves freely for Army service; and Secretary McAdoo has publicly complimented them for their activities in behalf of the Liberty Loans.

"The war is growing and American troops, white and colored, are crossing the Atlantic in increasing force steadily. War news has the right of way in all American newspapers and is read by everybody. Trained men are busy collecting it. All war features are covered by them. All facilities for doing their work are afforded by the military authorities. It is one of the most difficult and comprehensive tasks ever undertaken by modern journalism.

LADIES THIMBLE CLUB

The L. T. Club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. John Juniper. The meeting was opened in its usual form by the president, Mrs. Thomas Jennings. The roll called and each member responded with dues and contributions to the Bible. Part of the afternoon was spent in needle work. The visitors present were Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Walker. They gave some helpful words to the club. Mrs. Jennings favored the club with several instrumental selections. After all business, the hostess, assisted by her two daughters served a tempting two course menu. After thanking the hostess for her hospitality the club adjourned to meet November 1st with Mrs. Joe Hyde.

THE COLORED AMERICAN IN WAR WORK

Issued from the Office of Emmett J. Scott, Special Assistant to the Secretary of War.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 23.—There are now fifty colored chaplains in the United States Army.

The September call for selective draftees, issued by Provost Marshal General Crowder, included 29, 016 colored men.

In the total of 1,900,000 American troops sent overseas, a goodly proportion may be accredited to the Negro race. This total was given by the War Department officials at a recent hearing before the House Committee on Military Affairs.

Many press reports, commenting on the American Army in France, intimate that the Germans have a whole lot of fear of colored troops in action. General Pershing is lavish in his praise of the colored soldiers and has testified officially that they show marvelous coolness under shell fire, and an entire regiment, as well as individual colored soldiers, has been cited for decorations of honor.

Preliminary to the recent session of the National Baptist Convention at St. Louis, a patriotic meeting was held at the Coliseum, in the course of which 10,000 enthusiastic colored people proclaimed their loyalty to the United States. A long parade, a chorus of 300 voices and a program of decorated celebration.

MAURY COUNTY NEWS—COLUMBIA THE COUNTY SEAT A CITY OF ACTIVITY.

Happenings and Doings Attracting Wide-Spread Attention—Spanish Flu Held in Check by Local Physicians Social and Personal Mention.

Considerable interest is centered here in the coming meeting of the Executive Board of the Baptist State Convention, which meeting was postponed on account of the prevailing epidemic, but information from President Hardin and Secretary Burns at Nashville give assurance that unless unforeseen obstacles arise, the meeting will positively be held November 27th, 28th and 29th. Each session will be held at the First Baptist Church, pastored by Rev. T. J. Tunstall, Jr. An influx of distinguished divines representing the missionary Baptists from various sections of the state is expected to be in attendance. Not only will the men be here in large numbers, but the representatives of the Woman's Auxiliary to the State Convention will also be in attendance. In fact the information is given out here that it will not be a stag affair because of the large sprinkling of the fair sex. In addition to this the movement of the colored troops, many of whom come from Maury County, is continuing to attract attention. It is said here the boys from these parts have participated in practically every drive in which the Americans under General Pershing have put on in France. Little by little their deeds of heroism cross the deep blue sea and find their way to this county seat. In every meeting that has been held where the war is discussed, "unconditional surrender" is the prevailing idea, giving strength to this sentiment. The Negroes went squarely on record by the part they played in the Fourth Liberty Loan. People in every walk of life, those with small means, as well as those rated as financial factors, supported the loan and subscribed the limit.

Mr. Mace Martin of Maury County, whose home is at Columbia, is visiting relatives this week. He is the brother of Mrs. Cora Woods who is well and favorably known in this city. He stated this week he would leave for Camp Taylor at the end of the week. Mr. Martin, when here in civil life, was one of the respected young men of the community. He was reared in Columbia and was always regarded as a brilliant star, as it seems that God had given him excellent qualities. He has been stationed at Camp Taylor for some time and is expected to be sent over there real soon. Whenever he gets over there he expects to fight for world's democracy and make good.

MEHARRY NEWS.

The enrollment has passed the four hundred mark and still they come to enroll in the several departments at Meharry.

The Government Inspector called and found the meals up to the required standard and made a suggestion that too much meat was being given the student body. We were able to tell some one had been around after he left.

In addition to the mess hall has been completed and the boys all have smiling faces as we will not be so crowded when we go to meals. The food is well prepared and palatable. No one claims it tastes like the food mother prepares at home.

The scheduled of the school has been somewhat changed: the school runs from 8 to 12, except the dental class which runs from 8 to 10 a. m. School in the afternoon from 1 to 4 p. m., except the dentals which go from 1 to 5 p. m. Study hours are from 7 to 9:30 p. m. Of course inspectors will see that study hours are observed in the several dormitories. This is a new era in Meharry when the student body almost to a man is to be found on the campus after four o'clock each day. Prior to this they have covered almost all parts of Nashville in their several vocations after school.

Dr. E. J. Codwell of Chattanooga, Tenn., paid his Alma Mater a visit this week and like most of the faithful ones contributed $25.00 to the Alumni Fund.

Dr. Trice of Clarksville, Tenn., made a visit to the school this week. Dr. John Eve of Class of '18, has accepted an internship in a hospital in Memphis, Tenn.

Dr. Gilbert of Atlanta, Ga., was a visitor on the campus this week.

Dr. D. O. Gathings, Class '18 was sent down to Muscle Shoals, Ala., this week to help fight the "Flu."

MILITARY TRAINING NORMAL STUDENTS

PRESIDENT HALE MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT—GRAMMAR STUDENTS ADMITTED—TWO COMMISSIONED OFFICERS ALREADY ON SCENE.

Military training has been authorized at the State Normal, according to an announcement handed out by President W. J. Hale of that school. It has been known that that school. It has been known that the A. and I. State Normal school was being considered for the Students Training Corps all the summer, but just what the status of the training would be had not been determined. President Hale advocated a class of training that would include students from the grammar schools. Since the state normal was in the main a normal and industrial school with manual training, the school authorities were working to impress the Government with the importance of giving to the young men of small opportunities who are mechanically and agriculturally inclined and who had but a limited literary training the same advantage from a military point of view as that offered by the colleges. Already two commissioned officers with the rank of First Lieutenants have been to the State Normal and it was learned this week that a Major from the National Capitol would be here within the next few days, together with an instructor General to make final inspection and to sign the papers, giving to State Normal a certificate as a member of the S. A. T. C. President Hale has been kept busy for the past ten days, getting the school in shape making preparation for the enlistment of the students so that the boys' department could be transformed immediately into a training department.

Those well informed on conditions assert that this is the first school in the South that will offer to the Negro boy of limited education this superior advantage. While he enters at a very low grade, he will be given every kind of military and mechanical training up to that bordering on civil engineering. In order to push this work through, it is known President Hale spent much time in the East and North this year, making a practical study of the S. A. T. C. institution en route. The full announcement of the Corps is to be made as soon as the Government officials have put their final O. K. upon the plan.

OKMULGEE, OKLA. NEWS.

Okmulgee, Okla.—The authorities of this city put the lid on tight and for the past two Sundays there have been no religious services of any kind. The public schools have closed and Prof. W. H. Fort, the principal of Dunbar High School, declared he did not know when the lid would be taken off. But the people of these parts are observing every order sent out by the authorities and are co-operating in the prevention of the spread of the epidemic. Few deaths among the colored people have been reported. Extra preparations had been made here to entertain Rev. Henry A. Boyd, the secretary of the Sunday School Congress, who was to have appeared at the First Baptist Church under the direction of Prof. W. H. Fort, but his coming has been postponed as have all public affairs scheduled to take place within the next ten days.

DEATH OF MRS. S. T. WILLIAMSON

Word has reached Nashville of the death of Mrs. S. T. Williamson, whose death occurred at Palestine, Tex., last week. Mrs. Williamson was the wife of Mr. S. T. Williamson, one of the prominent citizens of that city and the sister of Mr. W. S. Willis, Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Texas. Interment was at Palestine in the presence of a host of friends. The deceased was very popular there where she had spent a number of years of her life.

REV. WM. FERRELL OF DETROIT.

Among the visiting ministers who were at the Baptist Ministers' Conference Monday morning was Rev. Wm. Ferrell, of Detroit, Mich. Rev. Ferrell is pastor of what is regarded as the largest Baptist congregation in Detroit. While he formerly pastored in this city, and was a member of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, he went from Nashville to Chattanooga, where he pastored for a while. From Chattanooga he went to Atlanta and then from Atlanta to Detroit. Rev. Mr. Ferrell stated that when he arrived in Detroit he was called to a small church of only seven members and during his three years stay in the north he has added more than eighteen hundred to the congregation. They have purchased a magnificent church edifice and he is now on his vacation, which was voted by the church. He declared they were lined up solidly with the unincorporated Convention. His address before the Ministers' Conference Monday was full of interest and great value to the comment. He is to leave the city at the end of his vacation to take up his work in the North again.

MISS MATTIE MAI MCGAVOCK ILL.

Miss Mattie Mai McGavock of 2515 Alameda street, and an efficient employee of the National Baptist Publishing Board, has been very ill for three weeks. Her many friends will be delighted to know that she is convalescing and it is hoped she will be able to mingle with them in a few weeks.

EXCELLENT WORK OF LOCAL PASTOR

REV. B. B. BOLDEN ACTIVE IN FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE—ARDENT AND CONSCIENTIOUS WORKER—CANVASSES MEMBERSHIP OF HIS CHURCH.

One of the most active workers of the recent Fourth Liberty Loan Drive was Rev. B. B. Bolden, pastor of the Foster Chapel Baptist Church. While he was prevented from having any church services or getting the matter before the people, he made a personal canvass for subscriptions and was so successful that he was highly commended by the Campaign Committee. At the first meeting he addressed the body and told them of the deep interest the people in the neighborhood of his church had in the Liberty Loan drive. It developed at this meeting that he was not only an ardent and conscientious worker, but had shown the same amount of originality in his religious work. Foster's Chapel is a Missionary Baptist church out on Lebanon Pike just opposite the Mt. Calvary Cemetery, a splendid two-story brick building, modern in every respect, with electric lights, up-to-date pews, pulpits and pulpit chairs. The congregation is one of the leading ones of the Baptist State Convention, sending their pastor, the Rev. Mr. Bolden, to all the meetings, whether state or national, in connection with the church they operate a front-line Sunday school. The congregation has been thus brought out, according to the efforts of the pastor, Rev. Bolden. Unique in his way as a preacher he is, because of the fact that he not only built the church by his financial management, but was actually one of the workmen, helping to lay the brick, put up the scaffold, put in the floor and even putting the roof on with the organization and to bring his people in closer touch with what is being done in Nashville.

RHINES-DAVIS.

A marriage upon which centered the interest of a large number of friends and relatives was that of Miss Minnie Bell Davis and Attorney John Porter Rhines which took place at the Fireside School Headquarters, Thursday evening Oct. 3rd, 1918.

For the occasion the house was decorated with ferns, palms and cut flowers. The ceremony was performed in the assembly room of the Fireside School before an altar of ferns and palms by Rev. Brumfield pastor of Howard Congregational church. Just before the entrance of the bride party Dr. O. A. Childress Jr., of Meharry of Dentistry sang, "Oh Promise Me." At the close of this song Miss Mary Katherine Battle, one of Nashville's most talented younger musicians began the strains of "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." Preceding the bride party entered two beautiful little ribbon bearers, Mary Hawkins and Julian McMillan Elliott, who formed an isle to the altar. The bride entered next with her sister, Miss Francis Davis as maid of honor, followed by the groom and his best man, Dr. Martin. The bride wore a gown of white Georgette Crepe over white satin, her flowers were a corsage of bridal roses. The veil was caught with sprigs of orange blossoms, she never looked more charming than on this occasion. The maid of honor was gown in a beautiful grey Georgette Crepe with boots and gloves to match her flowers were pink roses. Both the groom and the best man wore the conventional black. The bride is one of the most talented young women of the city having graduated from Owensboro high school with honors, and is a graduate from the commercial, and Teacher Training departments of Walden College, and is of the highest type of Christian woman. Has been for more than five years bookkeeper at the Fireside School.

Attorney Rhines is one of the leading attorneys of the race having practiced law in Nashville for a number of years. His reputation as a lawyer is known throughout the south. Their popularity was attested by a large crowd of Mr. and Mrs. Rhines are at home to lecture of handsome wedding presents, their many friends at 47 Manly St.

HADLEY PARK CIRCLE CLUB.

The Hadley Park Circle Club met at the home of Miss Eura B. Adams, 2711 Bateman street, Thursday evening, Oct. 17. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. A. C. Holder, opened in its usual form. The roll was called, each member responded with quotation and dues, after business hours, the club was entertained by recitation by Mrs. Frank Jones, and a solo by Mrs. Eura B. Adams, just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight.

There were three visitors present, two of whom were so well pleased with the meeting and members, they immediately became members. The entire club impressed an unusual glad appearance to see the face of our former secretary, Mrs. William E. Johnson, who has been out of the city teaching and was able to pay us a visit owing to the present condition of the state schools by closing on account of the "Flu" which is raging.

Later in the evening the club was turned over to the hostess, who served an elaborate two course menu. The meeting was an unusual pleasant one, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. B. Wilson.

ATTORNEY J. ARTHUR DAVIS

Attorney J. Arthur Davis of Chicago was in Nashville on a vacation this week. He delivered an enthusiastic and instructive speech at Roger Williams University. The school had a half holiday in honor of him.
